7. Discussion and Hearings:

7:50pm- Sign Hearing- 311 Broadway – The sign for Abbotts Frozen Custard was approved as presented with pictures.

8:00pm- Hearing- 17 Brantwood Road

Walter Abbott, owner; Lucy Gorhman, designer; Michael Collins, builder; Eve Eisenberg, Architect; Michael Collins, builder and abutters: Susan Lutwak, Ken Maser, Anita Bar, Greg Butss. Also in attendance were John D. Leone and Bob Annese.

The plan presented is to demolish 17 Brantwood Road and to remove the garage to make room to complete new construction and then replace the garage. Plans, pictures and designs were shared with the Commission and abutters. Abutters commented on the change in height of the ridgeline which will be 16 feet taller than the current house. There were also questions regarding the retaining wall. Commissioner Guthrie moved that this house not be preferentially preserved and that it could be demolished. Four Commissioners voted in favor and one opposed the motion.

The monitor for this project will be JoAnn Robinson.

Hearing closed at 8:27pm.

8:30pm- Presentation by the Arlington High School Building Committee:

Superintendent Kathy Bodie, School Committee Member Jeff Thielman
